Dear Sir,

The National Film Development Corporation confirms receipt of your letter dated 06th March, 2026.

The National Film Development Corporation acknowledges that when a co-produced film project between Australia and India has been completed, the Australian competent authority will issue a formal letter confirming that the project has been completed and satisfies all relevant requirements.

The National Film Development Corporation will respond with a corresponding letter confirming that the project has likewise been completed and meets all necessary requirements under our procedures.

Yours sincerely,

(Prakash Magdum)
